President's Message

For those who do not know me, I'm Joyce Bibeau, Administrator for the Kerry Funeral Home and Cremation Care Center. Kerry Funeral Home is a place where families and friends can share stories and memories about their loved one. Together, your family, with the help of our staff, can personalize your loved one's wishes by providing meaningful and lasting expressions. From simple to detailed arrangements, Kerry Funeral Home provides support and assistance to the families at a time when it's most needed. My husband, John Bibeau, is a past president of the chamber and we have two beautiful daughters; both seniors, one in college and one in high school. Throughout my life, I have volunteered in my community through church, Girls Scouts, schools and more. I feel it is important to help others flourish.

Although 2021 has started a bit differently than years past, we remain hopeful for the future to be a little brighter. The Chamber typically hosts the Member Awards & Board Installation every January to celebrate all the accomplishments of the previous year and to look to the future by installing the new officers and board of directors. The installation of our officers and directors took place at our January Board Meeting; however, we look forward to a celebration later this year. In the meantime, I'm excited to welcome and work with our newest board members; Randy Barcella of Real Estate Revealed, Kelly Glester of Jeffrey LaMorte Salon, Matt Gugliciello of Lake View Plaza, Daniel McMillan of Joe Rizza Ford and Tina Scott of Vegan T'ease.

Our Membership Orientation was presented virtually in January by our Executive Director Felicitas Cortez and Member Services Coordinator Bonnie Hollaway to assist our members in maximizing their memberships. The Chamber's Legislative Committee informed us of new and upcoming laws for 2021 and how they will affect our businesses during our January Membership Meeting. Thank you to everyone who participated in these meetings.

As President, I plan to help the Chamber and its member's businesses to move forward together in these unprecedented times. This can only occur with the support of our strong board of directors, the amazing staff we have and listening to our members' needs and solutions. Most of our members have survived thus far and they are the ones who engineered new processes with the wellbeing of their staff and customers in mind. As we all share how we have overcome our struggles, it makes us all stronger so we can move forward together. I am excited for this year as I believe it to be a year that the world will be opening again. This may not happen until late spring, but it will be coming which brings us hope. Hope can be immensely powerful and keep us all focused and looking to a better tomorrow.

I look forward to working with all of you as your 2021 OPACC President.

Mayor's Message

During the past year, the business community has faced unprecedented challenges. Our lives have been drastically altered because of COVID-19. How people do business has changed. Many of our small businesses, especially those in the service industry, have been hit especially hard by the effects of COVID-19. The Village's operations and interactions with businesses and residents have changed to enable us to continue to provide the level of services the community has come to expect in Orland Park.

Ensuring public safety and maintaining fiscal strength are two of the most important things the Village of Orland Park can do to ensure that our businesses and residents can thrive.

In January, Police Chief Mitchell gave us an update on our public safety statistics for 2020, a few are shown here:

- In 2019, the number of index crimes was the lowest in 25 years
- In 2020, index crimes dropped another 29%
- Violent crimes reduced from 26 in 2019 to 25 in 2020, both of which are the lowest number of violent crimes per capita for towns over 50,000 in Illinois
- Property crimes dropped from 948 in 2019, to 666 in 2020. This is less than half when compared to the 1,337 property crimes in 2016.
- Calls for service, which include our increased proactive business checks, were over 275,000 in 2020, up from the record high 209,000 in 2019.

Our police department does a phenomenal job of keeping us safe. We have proactively implemented several programs over the last few years to ensure that our businesses and residents are kept safe. Additionally, our department's performance during the riots and looting that occurred regionally and nationwide was exemplary.

In 2020, the Village faced several budget challenges. Our revenue dropped by over $7 million in 2020 and we project a revenue shortfall in 2021 as well. Fortunately, since 2017 the Village reduced the operating budget by 13.9%, full time staff by 9.5% and debt by over $40 million. This put the Village in a strong position to handle the COVID-related financial challenges without the need for drastic measures. As business owners are aware, deferring capital projects save money in the short term but cost more money in the long term. For this reason, our approach was to continue our capital program and make targeted cuts of over $2 million where it made sense.

The result of this was increased investment in our roads and parks. In the last two years we repaved 32 road areas compared to the previous plan of 9. In the past, we were repairing one park every two years. We've changed our process and increased our investment and in 2020 the Village performed major repairs on 7 parks, repaved 10 basketball courts, 8 tennis/pickleball courts and installed 7 pavilions. Additionally, the major renovation of John Humphrey Complex was completed.

The 2021 budget includes continued increased investment in our roads and parks and a robust capital program. In conjunction with this, the Village is also taking the opportunity to restructure its debt in 2021. In total, our end of year 2021 debt will be reduced another $4M in spite of lower revenues and increased capital spending. From the EOY 2017 to EOY 2021, the Village will have run a surplus and reduced debt by $41 million.

In spite of the challenges over the last year, the Village of Orland Park remains in a strong position fiscally and is committed to ensure that our businesses and residents are safe.

The day to day goal for Kelly and the staff at Jeffrey LaMorte Salons is to ensure that every guest enjoys a comfortable experience while receiving the highest level of service. The entire Jeffrey LaMorte Staff share Kelly's love of education and constantly push to evolve. New Board member, Tina Scott is the owner of Vegan T'ease, an Orland Park restaurant specializing exclusively in vegan cuisine.

According to Tina, Vegan T'ease was birthed from her experiences of battling weight issues, high blood pressure, pre-diabetes and over the top cholesterol. Prior to becoming a chef, Tina worked as the Director of Recruiting at KPMG and later promoted to the position of Vice President. She left KPMG and worked as a recruiter at Ernst & Young. While she forged a successful and diverse career in corporate America, she yearned for meaningful work with a mission. Tina is also an ordained minister.

After Tina was diagnosed eight years ago with symptoms of prediabetes, high cholesterol and being overweight, physicians recommended medication. Already a vegetarian, she decided to pursue training as a vegan chef at the renown Chicago vegan restaurant, Soul Vegetarian. She further complimented her training with travels to Greece and Israel to learn more about seasonings and spices.

Thus, began her journey of making food fun and nutritious. She identified her favorite dishes and found joy in creating its vegan equivalent. While attending a White Sox baseball and finding her vegan choices lacking, Tina was inspired to create nachos topped with vegan cheese. Vegan T'ease originally started out as T'ease Cheese at farmers markets, festivals and events around the southern suburbs and city. The popularity of her dishes eventually called for a brick-and-mortar restaurant.

With her health challenges reversed and a growing following, Tina finally opened her restaurant in Orland Park. Today, Vegan T'ease is known as the premier vegan restaurant in the area, with vegan fans coming from throughout the southland. She dedicates her current and future success to her business partner and beloved husband, Kevin, who passed away recently.

Welcoming Back Our Seniors

Orland Township is happy to welcome back our seniors – with safety modifications in place. As restrictions have eased, we will re-start Senior Drop-In (bingo) and several classes. To maintain proper social distancing, we will be holding Drop-In and exercise classes at the Orland Chateau. We were able to do this back in October, with great success, until Illinois took a temporary step back in mitigations. With the COVID-19 vaccine being administered to Groups 1A and 1B, we are looking forward to when we can welcome our seniors back to the Township building.

As always, health and safety of our seniors and our staff is of the utmost concern. Social distancing measures will be taken, along with face mask wearing requirements and hand sanitizer being readily available.

If your company would like to join Orland Township in welcoming back our seniors, please contact Marie Ryan at MarieR@orlandtownship.org or (708) 403-4222 for information.

Food Pantry

The Orland Township Food Pantry has been had an extremely busy year assisting our neighbors in need. Six mass food distributions, Thanksgiving dinner distribution, Holiday dinner and gift distribution, plus our daily clients – were all made possible thanks to the generous support of many local businesses, civic groups and the contributions of our wonderful and hardworking volunteers! But, like so many other charitable organizations, donations have dropped off with the start of the new year. Please consider supporting the Orland Township Food Pantry with donations of non-perishable items, including coffee, tea, canned goods and paper products. The Township also accepts donations of dog and cat food for the Pet Pantry, Crashy's Closet. Donations can be dropped off at the Food Pantry, 14807 S. Ravinia Avenue, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Thank you for helping Orland Township support our neighbors in need.

Stay safe and well!

Sincerely,
Paul O'Grady
Orland Township Supervisor

Orland Township Supervisor Paul O'Grady welcomes Township seniors to drop-in (bingo) at the Orland Chateau.

OPACC BUSINESSES

Two popular Chicago eateries came together to open their second locations as the first combination restaurant of its kind in neighboring suburb Orland Park, IL on Saturday, January 30, 2021. Chef Fab owner of Can't Believe It's Not Meat, vegetarian, vegan, and plant-based restaurant, and Andrew Bonsu and Phil Simpson, co-owners of Phlavz Bar and Grille, urban contemporary, jerk inspired cuisines created a cross blend of their establishments to offer the south suburbs a dining experience for customers with different food preferences, prepared in two separate kitchens, and served in one vibrant dining area.

Last year, both restaurants celebrated their first year in business building a loyal customer base. The owners are grateful to be able to start 2021 off by expanding after so many restaurants had to close their doors or downsize in 2020 due to the many changes in the industry brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic.

"We really do not know how to run a restaurant business outside of a pandemic. To be able to prosper during this time is amazing," shares Phil Simpson, co-owner of Phlavz Bar & Grille. "We would not be expanding without support from our family, friends, and the community. It is important to me and my business partners to be an example to others. This is what you can accomplish when you work hard on your dreams."

During the ribbon-cutting ceremony community and business leaders were present to personally give their best wishes to the new business owners. The 2021 Orland Chamber of Commerce President Joyce Bibeau presented the owners with new members' plaques and welcomed them to the Chamber. Dr. Cornel Darden, Jr. President/CEO of Southland Black Chamber of Commerce & Industry closed out the ceremony applauding them on their new endeavor. The Village of Orland Park, IL Mayor, Keith Pekau was the first customer served after the ribbon cutting.

"It's always good to add new businesses to our area. We have a lot of big companies and chain stores in Orland Park as you can look over there and see more, however, it's the locally-owned restaurants that add a unique touch to make the community special," says Mayor Keith Pekau. "Especially during these times for you to choose to open here with us, we are honored and we wish you only success."

Local residents can order online from both locations and popular food delivery services. Inside dining is permitted with limited capacity, masks are worn when not eating, and social distancing six feet apart.

Tips To Say "Good Riddance" To Clutter

Submitted by: Brian Ciapinski, Shark Shredding & Document Management Services, Inc.

Say Good Riddance to clutter for the New Year. Make it your New Years' resolution to get organized and clear the clutter in your home or office. Unorganized paper records, hard drives, or other materials that contain personal data, puts you or your business at risk for a serious data breach. There many benefits of decluttering, ranging from improved organization to reduced stress, and most importantly, preventing identity theft. Saying goodbye to clutter can also be a great way to leave bad memories in the past and start the New Year fresh.

TAKE INVENTORY: Review your documents and determine what is important and what is not. If you have so much you don't know what you have and wouldn't notice missing, it's time to properly destroy. Old files, mail, financial documents, old client records, or old media files, cause overflowing file cabinets. For businesses, there are requirements to keep data for a set period of time and privacy laws for confidential information of patients and client records. Precautions are necessary to safely store or destroy these items.

GET ORGANIZED: Tackle a little bit at a time. If you try to do it all at once you will get burnt out or make mistakes. Divide into categories - 1) Important Documents, 2) Stuff You Need to Keep, 3) Items that need to be discarded or securely destroyed. Clearly label files so they're easy to locate when needed. If space is an issue, save files in a digital format. Setting up a document scanning service that digitizes your files will maximize efficiencies and clear up space. Avoid stockpiling electronics because this increases the risk of a data breach (even if you have deleted confidential information on hard drives). The safest way to reduce this risk is hard drive destruction.

SECURE YOUR INFORMATION: Practice safety in your home and office. Use hard-to-guess passwords, and place them in a secure area (NOT ON A POST-IT NOTE). Place screen locks on all devices; use physical locks on drawers, office doors, and file cabinets. For your office, do not use recycle bins. Partner with a trusted document management company that provides locked security consoles with scheduled business shredding services.

SAFELY DESTROY: So now you have your discard pile. What should you do next? Do not just throw these items in the garbage, especially items containing personal data. Securely shred documents you no longer need. Using a professional shredding company will ensure your materials go straight to the shredder and that everything is destroyed. For businesses, schedule a one-time purge or set-up scheduled shredding service. If it's from your home, you can take it to an off-site shredding facility.

So now you have the tools to start 2020 off on the right foot and say "Good Riddance" to clutter. For the future, set aside time each day to organize and practice regular purging to prevent clutter from building up.
